

NORHAUSEN AND SURROUNDINGS

Nordhausen is the northernmost district town in Thuringia, conveniently located on the A 38 motorway and easily accessible via the A 4, A 17, A 7 and A 9 motorways. You can also reach Nordhausen easily by train.

The nearest airports are in:

- Erfurt/Weimar 80 km, Leipzig 130 km
- Hannover 160 km,
- Frankfurt, Dortmund, Berlin 280 km
- Düsseldorf 330 km

The above-thousand-year-old town with around 42,000 inhabitants is the Thuringian gateway to the Harz Mountains. It offers a wide range of sports, art and culture. Various bars, restaurants, sports clubs, fitness center, the bathhouse, the University with student club, the theater, the cinema and various museums ensure a variety of cultural and leisure activities.

You can find out more on the city's website at www.nordhausen.de.

SÜDHARZKLINIKUM

Medicine is responsibility.

DEAR MEDICAL STUDENTS,

we are an academic teaching hospital of the University Hospital Jena. We offer you the opportunity to complete a clinical internship at our hospital.

ABOUT US

With around 800 full inpatient beds and care places in the community psychiatric area, Südharz Klinikum Nordhausen gGmbH is the largest hospital in northern Thuringia. Every year, around 1,900 employees provide full and partial inpatient care for approximately 28,000 patients. Our qualified staff and excellent technical equipment are the prerequisite for supraregional medical care at the highest level and the basis for extensive training and further education. In addition to the 26 specialist disciplines, various competence centres, institutes and functional areas work under the roof of the hospital. In addition, a rescue helicopter is stationed at our hospital.
